

Manifesto

Myself Raghvendra omer (M.tech first year), contesting for the post “Joint Secretary: Academics” if elected, propose to do following.

Duties:

- Arrange one to one interaction for fresher's batch
- Arrange workshops for R, Python, Latex and C
- Regular feedback of courses through students
- Arrange Student-Faculty Meetings
- Courses permission, for which students are interested
- Student survey for courses, before starting of semester

Initiatives:

- Make available some important reading materials, open-source software's, online
- Link up with alumni's, to know about the useful software's used with in industry
- Arrange some pre-joining assignment for students
- Biometric system in IEOR lab
- Arrange case study classes with the help of other departments (once per two week)
- Motivate and convey the student to participate in technical festivals
- Celebrate IEOR's day in memories of any famous O.R researcher
- Lift up the issues of internship
- Ensure smooth functioning and organization of seminar and conference's
- Ensure the familiarity of Linux to student with in first semester by organizing some workshops
- Arrange quiz(analytical) on the monthly basis and reward appropriately
- Increase the involvement of students in projects (floated during winter session)
- Provide extra guidance to the students, who opted for modelling Lab(IE-507)

Credentials:

- Worked as convener in Vedic Oasis for Inspiration, Culture and Education (VOICE) at Bithoor camp.
- Worked as curator in Textile machinery Exhibition in Kanpur