

MANIFESTO

I, Akash Gupta, standing for the post of JOINT SECRETARY (Cultural) of IEOR, if elected propose to do the following:

DUTIES:

- Ensuring good participation and winning performances in the PG Cult next year following the same trend of this year and even will try to do better.
- Ensuring maximum participation of IEOR people in cultural activities.
- Motivating IEOR students to participate in cultural activities.
- Arranging proper funds for the cultural related activities of the department.
- Maintaining information about all cultural events running across the insti. and informing students of our department about the same on time.

INITIATIVES:

- Maintaining Cult related notices at IEOR Dept office, lab, Phd lab to make students aware that what are the upcoming events as well as workshops.
- Ask upcoming batches about their interests in cultural activities and judge their talents at some events or at the time of Fresher's party and maintaining a short database for the same.
- Organizing some intra department events/workshops by people having enough expertise in their arena so that students can get opportunity to learn/show their talent like Photography Workshops, Dance workshop etc.
- Motivating people to learn new cultural activity of their interest.
- Motivating IEOR students to participate in some inter hostel and intra hostel events so that they can bring new ideas in their respective talents.

ACHIEVEMENTS in CULTURAL FIELDS:

- I have motivated students of IEOR to participate in PG Cult Dance Competition this year and was a part of the same team.
- I have been a part of cultural team of in my B.Tech college.
- I have participated in cultural events at college level and outside the college also.
- I have won many prizes during my participation in various group events such as Dance and singing in school annual functions.

All the positions of responsibilities I undertook till now during my tenure in school and graduation were handled well, recognized and applauded. If given a chance I will assure that I will do the same.