

MANIFESTO

I, Aayush Aggarwal , M.TECH. 1st year if elected for General Secretary of IEORSA will give my best to do the following

DUTIES

- Coordinate with all Joint Secretaries and work with them to fulfil the promises made by them in their manifestos.
- Conduct farewell, freshmen orientation, fresher's party and IEOR day,in collaboration with joint secretaries.
- Maintain the IEORSA fund and ensure proper fund allocation for various events .
- Conduct at least 4 GBMs to ensure transparency in work and circulate minutes of meeting.
- Address the concerns of students related to department.
- Interact with students regularly and make them aware of academics and extracurricular activities.

KEY INITIATIVES

- To improve research environment in IEOR, organise monthly talks by senior students on various research areas in IEOR.
- To enhance the interaction among students, organise sports events at department level.
- Create a blog from IEORSA council where details of work done by council and upcoming events will get updated regularly.
- Organise at least one department trip with the consent of students.
- Organise Alumni Talk in odd semester so that students get better idea of present Industry and research scenario.
- Try to improve pantry Facilities in the department by arranging funds from department.
- Come up with a formal documentation for allocating funds to students for attending conferences in India.

CREDENTIALS

- Operations coordinator in Inter IIT cultural Meet.
- Current Department Coordinator, ISCP.
- Member of publicity team, IEOR DAY.
- Convenor of robotics events in Techsurge and Mridang (Annual Fest of MAIT)